Subject: RE: Deposition Subpoena to Anthony Levandowski

Patrick-

We object to the document requests that are part of this subpoena. They are outside the expedited discovery that Judge Alsup ordered. The Court called for document production from the parties, not from non-party deponents. Further, Anthony Levandowski plans to assert his Fifth Amendment rights with respect to any documents requests served on him. And to extent that the requests ask for a review of his personal documents and production by Friday, we believe they are unduly burdensome.

We'd ask you to modify your subpoena to remove the document requests. Otherwise, we will need to meet and confer and if necessary discuss a briefing schedule on a discovery dispute/motion to modify a subpoena that complies with NDCA Civil Local Rules and Standing Orders.
